

Mary Maya (Telepathist)

Mary Maya is the faculty head of telepathy at the Scottish Society for Paranormal Research. She has had telepathic abilities since her early childhood, something she had to keep hidden for fear of judgement from her family until she interned at the SSPR as a teenager. The previous faculty head of telepathy took notice of her abilities and invited her to work in the department as a full-time employee; from there, she eventually became faculty head herself.

Appearance

Mary has brown skin, brown eyes, and medium-length curly black hair. She typically wears a blouse, a tie, a waistcoat, an above-knee skirt, and flat shoes.

Personality

She is outgoing and friendly, but dislikes others interfering with her work and tends to become stressed often.
